

Holmes County Farmer.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE COUNTY.

J. A. & E. ESTILL, Publishers.

MILLERSBURG, OHIO.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 28, 1860.

Democratic Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT

HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON

OF GEORGIA.

DEMOCRATIC ELECTORAL TICKET.

SEYMOUR MEYER, of Stark County;

WILLIAM B. WOODS, of Licking;

WILLIAM J. F. KNOX, of Hamilton;

JACOB H. FOSTER, of Franklin;

JOHN SCHUPP, of Adams;

SILAS B. WALKER, of Shelby;

EDWARD SHEPHERD, of Henry;

NEWTON A. LEVINSKY, of Delaware;

HENRY C. KAUFMAN, of Monroe;

GEORGE E. STANLEY, of Jefferson;

CHESTER B. MOTT, of Washington;

JOHN D. JAMES, of Jackson;

JAMES M. MILLER, of Boone;

NATHAN G. FOSTER, of Franklin;

WILLIAM H. JONES, of Adams;

BREXID KILLGORE, of Ashland;

NICHOLAS F. JOSE, of Holmes;

ANDREW LAYMAN, of Washington;

WILLIAM S. KENNEDY, of Belmont;

CHARLES D. ADAMS, of Lark;

GEORGE A. HOWARD, of Ashland;

GEORGE WALKER, of Jefferson.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE,

THOMAS J. S. SMITH,

OF MONTGOMERY.

FOR MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,

ABNER L. BACKUS,

OF LUCAS.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL,

D. W. STAMBAUGH,

OF TUSCARAWAS.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR PROBATE JUDGE,

HENRY G. SAUNDERS,

FOR CLERK OF THE COURT,

ERASTUS BEECHER,

FOR COMMISSIONER,

JOSEPH KIMERER,

FOR RECORDER,

A. J. BELL,

Congressional Sovereignty vs. Popular Sovereignty.

The Republican convention that nominated John C. Fremont for the Presidency engraved the following in their platform.

"Resolved, That the Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government, and that in the exercise of this power, it is both the right and duty of Congress to prohibit in the Territories those twin relics of barbarism—polygamy and slavery."

This is the Territorial policy of the Republican party clearly set forth. On the other hand the Democrats claim that the people of a Territory, like those of a State, are fully capable to govern themselves, and to regulate their own domestic affairs in their own way; subject, only, to the Constitution of the United States.

This great principle of self-government is the corner-stone of American liberty.

It was to maintain this that the American colonies, through the Continental Congress, declared their independence of the Mother country. It was for this that they engaged in a seven years war with the mistress of kingdoms and the master of Empires. It was for this that the Almighty's shield was thrown around the person of Washington to save him from a thousand deaths that he might redeem his country. It was for this that our forefathers endured the dangers, privation, and hardships of the Revolution. It was for this that the gallant De Kalb left his bleeding country in the hands of a tyrant he could not subdue to lay down his life upon the plains of Camden. It was for this that the brave Montgomery poured out his last life's drop before the walls of Quebec. It was for this the noble Lafayette deserted the blushing vineyards of his native France, the young wife of his bosom, an association with kings and nobles who owned him for an equal, to peril his life and shed his blood upon the land he redeemed. It is for this that the Democratic party has ever contended. It is for this that we now urge the election of Stephen A. Douglas and invite the patriotic men of all parties to aid in the noble cause—the cause of Constitutional liberty.

Holmes County Farmer.

The Republican convention of this district met at Coshocton, on Wednesday last week, and nominated Hon. William Helmeck for re-election. Mr. Helmeck received a large lot of wine from Cincinnati but a short time ago. Is the wine to be used for electioneering purposes? It is generally known that Mr. Helmeck expended over two thousand dollars to procure his election two years ago. We have heard Republicans boast that he secured his election by this expenditure of money and that he will do the same thing again. Shall it be proclaimed to the world that the people of the 15th Congressional district are merchantable property to be bought by Mr. Helmeck's money, or will the voters put the seal of condemnation upon the procurement of office by such base means?

Bell and Indiana.

The Bell and Everett party of Indiana held a large and enthusiastic State convention at Indianapolis, on the 15th inst. A full electoral ticket was nominated, and a fusion with any party strongly denounced.

Missouri Election.

The Democratic majority in Missouri is about 15,000. The Breckinridge candidate for Governor received less than 5,000 votes, in the entire State. "Things are working."

Stand Up and Answer.

The first Republican Congress met on the first Monday of December 1855. It took the House seven weeks to elect a presiding officer, at a cost to the people of over $500,000. The next Congress in which the Republicans had a majority met on the first Monday of December 1859, and it then took the House eight weeks to elect a presiding officer, at a cost to the Nation of about $700,000. The Republicans, William Helmeck among them, voted for eight consecutive weeks for John Sherman. John Sherman endorsed Helmeck's impending crisis, which says: "Not to be an Abolitionist is to be a willful and diabolical instrument of the devil." Now, we want William Helmeck to stand up and answer why he sustained the above sentiment, and to do so, aided in squandering $700,000, and eight weeks time in voting for Sherman, if he is not an Abolitionist?

The Holmes County Republican, during the contest for speaker, said:

"We hope the Northern Republicans will remain firm, and if the Union must go, why, let her slide."

The Republican is a Helmeck organ and we want to know from Helmeck whether he stands upon the above platform erected by it. Every lover of the Union predicts a trying time ahead for the Union of the States, and under this state of affairs it is important that we have patriots in Congress; hence the necessity of Mr. Helmeck coming out plainly and unequivocally on these questions. If Mr. Helmeck should be re-elected will he again assist in voting away $700,000 to distract the people and aid in the overthrow of the Union?

Bell and Everett State Convention.

The Bell and Everett State Convention was held at Chillicothe on Thursday last. Some 400 delegates were in attendance. Nearly every county in the State was represented. A full electoral ticket was nominated. J. W. Savage, of Knox county, is the elector for this district.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Union party of Ohio, in mass Convention assembled, most cordially approve and ratify the nomination of the Hon. John Bell of Tennessee for President, and the Hon. Edward Everett of Massachusetts for Vice President of the United States.

Resolved, That the platform of the Union, the Constitution, and the enforcement of the laws, as illustrated in the lives and public services of these distinguished citizens, is a sufficient exposition of the policy which the Constitution and Union justly propose to the people of the United States.

Resolved, That we condemn in the most unqualified terms the conduct of the Republican party of Ohio in their effort to nullify the laws through the agency of the Supreme Court; that their regulation of Judge Swan, because he sustained the Fugitive Slave Law in accordance with the whole country (judicial decisions, and their recommendation of Judge Breckinridge, because of his radical and groundless position on that law, merits the rebuke of the law-abiding people, and exhibits in a plain light the necessity of maintaining our platform.

Resolved, That with a view of rendering our commendations effective, we deem it inexpedient to nominate a third candidate for the office of Supreme Judge, but we recommend that every conservative Union man vote as to secure the defeat of Judge Breckinridge.

Resolved, That we recommend the nomination of Attorney General, and of a candidate for the Board of Public Works, to be supported by the Constitutional Union party of Ohio at the October election.

Nominations.

For Attorney General, we recommend E. E. Holmes, of Hamilton county.

For member of Board of Public Works—M. L. Duberry of Franklin.

Electors at Large—Gov. Allen Trimble of Highland county, Col. John Davenport of Belmont county.

Speeches were made by Col. Van Trump, J. H. Thompson and Leslie Combs.

Accessions.

We never pick up a Democratic paper now-a-days without reading accounts of important accessions to our ranks. These come from all parts of the country; from North and South, East and West. At no time since the days of Jackson have the people been so aroused, and so enthusiastic in the support of any man as they are now for the gallant Douglas. He has a hold upon the popular heart such as no man has passed during the last quarter of a century.

"Then clear the track for little Doug, Who's always sure to win. Their efforts will be made in vain, Will find they can't come in."

Alabama Elections.

The recent elections in Alabama have resulted very largely in favor of the Democracy. The Yancey-Breckinridge forces were met and routed in their strongholds. Nearly every county as far as heard from is Democratic. The Breckinridge bolters had but little better show in Alabama than in Missouri. Douglas and Johnson will sweep the State by a huge majority.

A Good Nomination.

Hon. James R. Morris has been nominated for Congress by the Democracy of the Monroe district. This is a first-rate nomination. His election is almost certain. His opponent is Cullumy Theaker, a gentleman who has a great number of anxious friends in the Western part of this State who he dilled some years ago with worthless patent rights.

Struck by Lightning.

The Black Republican Liberty Pole at Birmingham, Conn., was struck by lightning last Saturday evening, and shivered from top to bottom. It was the largest in the New England States.—Exchange.

There will be a storm on the 6th of November that will shiver the Republican party from top to bottom. When you see the wool fly you may know Douglas is elected president.

White Men, Bear in Mind.

That Judge Breckinridge has decided that a negro, less than half black, is a white man and entitled to the right of suffrage. Those who consider themselves better than a negro will vote the Democratic ticket, and those who regard a negro their equal will vote the Republican ticket.

Democratic Meetings.

The Democracy of Richmond, Knox and other townships will have a grand rally at

NAPOLEON

Saturday September 8th at one o'clock P. M.

A meeting will be held at

BLOOMFIELD

on Saturday the 8th day of September, at 1 o'clock P. M.

A meeting will be held at

MT. EATON

on Saturday the 8th day of September at 1 o'clock P. M.

A meeting will be held at

SHREVE

Saturday afternoon September 1st at 1 o'clock.

At Mt. Eaton and Shreve, speakers from Wayne and Holmes will be present.

The meetings will all be attended by some of the following named speakers:

Thomas Amos, William Reed, L. R. Critchfield, C. F. Vorhes, D. S. Uhl, H. J. Conner, W. S. Tancylhill, G. F. Newton, J. A. Estill and others. It is hoped the Democracy in the several localities will make the necessary preparation for the meetings.

Turn Out.

JUDGE BLISS,

Will address the Democracy of

MILLERSBURG,

At the Court House on to-morrow,

FRIDAY EVENING,

August 24th. Every person is invited to attend.

Badly Fooled.

Abolitionists and negro stealers it seems are the chief friends of Douglas in the northern States.—Charlotte, (Va.) Democrat.

Our contemporary is greatly in error in regard to the friends of Judge Douglas in the North. The friends of Judge Douglas in the North are those who have stood up manfully against overwhelming odds for the rights of the North, South, East and West. His principal opposition in the North are the Black Republicans who sympathized with John Brown in his raid upon Virginia. There is also an insignificant opposition led on by men who in the main have been Wilmot proviso men, anti-Nebraska men, Van Buren men of 1848, and general fagmen for the Abolitionists. In Ohio, there are very few among the Breckinridge leaders who have clean records. To say that the chief friends of Douglas, in Ohio, are Abolitionists and negro stealers is to say what is barely false.

Another Bolter Consigned to the Boister Pasture.

General Thomas S. Green, one of the North Carolina seceders, and who in the Yancey Convention at Baltimore, put Joe Lane in nomination for Vice-President, was beaten for the State Senate, at the late election, by Dr. Mitchell, of Warren County, which gave Buchanan some seven hundred and seventy majority.

Crawford County.

We predict that Mr. Douglas will get a thousand majority in Crawford county.—Forum.

At the last election Crawford gave R. P. Ranney 708 majority, and Holmes gave him 723. We claim that Holmes will give Douglas a larger majority than Crawford will, and on that proposition we propose to hypothecate the Oysters.—What say you, Tom, are you in?

Still They Come.

The Capital City Fact Columbus, has come out for Breckinridge and Lane. Our march is onward.—Stark County Democrat.

The Capital City Fact has never been a Democratic paper though it has been everything else. It "has been all things by turns and nothing long." It grinds for whoever greases the machine. What did the Breckinridgers pay for it?

Cassius at Tiffin.

The Black Republicans of Tiffin paid Cassius M. Clay $100 to make them a speech at their mass meeting a few days ago. In that speech Mr. Clay said:

"Here (the Democrats) tell you we are for fighting the blacks—for setting the negroes free—SO WE ARE! We believe, as you say, that in 1776, all men were created free and equal, endowed with certain inalienable rights."

THEY MEANT THE NEGROES WERE EQUAL WITH THE WHITE MAN!"

North Carolina.

Full returns from all the counties in the State give Ellis, Democratic candidate for Governor 6,580 majority over Pool, the Opposition candidate. The official returns will vary but slightly from these figures.

Illinois.

The Bell party met at Decatur, Ill., in State Convention, on Thursday last and nominated a full electoral ticket. Resolutions were passed endorsing the nomination of Bell and Everett, and pledging the best efforts of the party to promote their election.

An Answer Wanted.

The Cleveland National Democrat refuses to support the Democratic State ticket while every other paper in the State supports it. Has the editor the hardihood to claim that that is not bolting?

The editor of the Jackson County (Indiana) Union, a joint-stock concern, hoisted the Breckinridge flag, and in the next issue he completes the story.

The result of it, is that six (a majority) of the stockholders caught me by the editorial nap of the neck and seat of the breeches, and I left the concern.

Or the three Washburne brothers, who have been in Congress together, from Maine, Wisconsin and Illinois, but one—E. B. Washburne, of the latter State—will be a candidate for re-election.

'd Welcome Them with Bloody Hands to Hospitable Graves.'—CORWIN.

One side of the above cut represents the bloody battle of Cero Gordo. The brave General Shields is seen falling from his horse with a terrible wound.

The other side represents Abraham Lincoln, or as he is now called, "Honest Old Abe" opposing the granting of supplies to those who are fighting the battles of our common country, and backing up Tom Corwin in wishing our country's defenders welcomed with "bloody hands to hospitable graves." It also represents him while in the act of giving his vote against the bill granting bounty land to those of our soldiers who returned alive, and to the widows of those who died of disease or were killed by the enemy while in the service of their country. To the honor of the Congressional district he represented he said that they would not suffer him to go back to Congress. We hope the people of the United States will never be subjected to the burning shame of having a TORY for President.

The Good Time Coming.

Mr. C. H. Langston—a Black Republican ally—addressed the colored people at their first of August celebration in Dayton. We find a sketch of his remarks in that excellent journal, the Dayton Enquirer. Langston said:

"God has brought the colored folks here for a great purpose; it was the destiny of the white and black races on this continent to amalgamate, and out of this union was to grow the most mighty and perfect people the world ever knew. We can't escape this destiny. The black would furnish to the common stock the bone and sinew and muscle, and the whites the intellectual stock! And together, the amalgam would present a perfect nation."

The audience was a mixed one—white and black—and it was curious to notice the diverse effects produced by the prophetic eloquence of the speaker. The negroes, by expressive looks, indicated a willingness to enter immediately into the proposed arrangement for the supply of bone and sinew; they were obviously ready to go in on their muscle's interior. But respectable looking old gentlemen, fathers of fair daughters, from whom was expected the requisite supply of intellectual stock, grew fussy, reached for their hats and canes, and departed.

Go it, Langston! You are right. If all men are born equal, as Republicans assert, then all who assert must be fulfilled.—Logan Gazette.

Southern Elections.

The Kentucky and Missouri elections have had a wonderful influence on the public mind in all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breckinridge as the candidate of the party, and it is shown beyond question that he has no strength, not even in his own State. The taunt that his friends heuristics on all parts of the country, but especially in the South. It is demonstrated by these elections that the Democratic people of the South do not adopt Mr. Breck